3. Analyze excerpts of musical compositions, working from a printed score, on the levels of harmony, rhythm, melodic contour, phrase structure, and large-scale formal structure.
6. Identify and distinguish the major periods in the history of Western music from the Middle Ages into the 21st century and cite the primary composers whose works exemplify the stylistic trends of each period.
8. Cultivate and demonstrate a level of proficiency on a chosen primary instrument (or voice) suitable for transfer to a baccalaureate music program.
9. Apply his/her instrumental or vocal skill in the context of ensemble performance.

Units of study in detail – Unit Student Learning Outcomes:

Unit I [Part Reading/Preparation] [Supports Course SLOs #1,2,3]

Learning Objectives

The student will be able to:

- Develop effective reading techniques and learn how to properly follow printed music (Dynamics, Endings, Codas, etc.)
- Discuss individual section parts and how they work within the context of the piece, exploring the importance of each sections music and how it relates to the whole of the piece.
- Demonstrate their reading ability/preparation by utilizing video recordings of their performance for critique.

Unit II [Practice Methods] [Supports Course SLOs #2,3]

Learning Objectives

The student will be able to:

- Utilize effective practice techniques specific to their voice and part (intonation, articulation, timbre).
- Identify performance issues they are facing through evaluations of their performance by instructor.
- Create a practice routine that addresses issues specific to each student and how to remedy the problems.

Unit III [Listening] [Supports Course SLOs #1,2,3]

Learning Objectives

The student will be able to:

- Recognize tuning issues both with their own instrument and within the ensemble as a whole.
- Differentiate the different sections of the ensemble by sound and recognize each instrument's role in each piece of music.
- Evaluate form as it applies to the different pieces of music they perform: concertos, symphonies, tone poems, sonatas, popular music, etc.

Unit IV [Rehearsal Techniques and Performance] [Supports Course SLOs #2,3]

Learning Objectives

The student will be able to:

- Understand the role of the conductor and how to follow the signals for: tempo, ritardandos, accelerandos, dynamics, expressiveness, and other musical cues.
- Prepare their individual parts for performing within their section and with the ensemble.

Unit V [Performance] [Supports Course SLOs #1,2,3]

Learning Objectives

The student will be able to:

- Successfully employ the skills they have acquired and practiced in a live public concert setting.
- Utilize evaluations by conductor and asses how to best prepare for the next concert.

Evaluation of student learning: [Evaluates SLOs #1,2,3]

Achievement of the course objectives will be evaluated by the following tools:

- Assignments to be done at home and uploaded for review by instructor.
- Performance evaluations during each rehearsal.
- Oral quizzes on form, articulation, dynamics, structure, harmony of pieces being performed.
- Attendance and participation in rehearsals.
- Final public concert acts as a final exam for the course.
