CIP 490104

Associate in Science Degree

The Aviation Management program provides students with a background in business administration and related technical knowledge in aviation. In most cases, the graduate of this program should seek a four-year baccalaureate degree. Aviation management has evolved into a career discipline that requires a variety of skills.

PROGRAM OUTCOMES

- Utilize business information processing systems to improve management control in aviation businesses;
- Interpret financial statements and prepare budgets;
- Perform staff functions in marketing, sales, and general management with aviation-related businesses;
- Interpret and apply Federal Aviation Administration regulations and procedures to aviation-related businesses.

There are direct transfer options with Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University, Metropolitan State College, St. Francis College, Southern Illinois University, Thomas Edison State College, and Florida Institute of Technology. Although many graduates transfer to four-year colleges, graduates also enter the private sector in entry-level management positions with manufacturers, airline authorities, airport service operations, commuter air services, and corporate flight operations.

Students may study full-time or part-time. Most courses are offered during the day and evening. Admission to the program requires a high school diploma or its equivalent with two years of high school math.
