

Montessori Teacher Training Institute of Mercer County Community College MONTESSORI TEACHER CERTIFICATE PROGRAM

General Application Information

To apply, the following must be submitted:

- Montessori Application
- Signed acknowledgement page from the Policies and Procedures Handbook which confirms that you have read and understood the handbook
- A personal statement letter which tells us why you are interested in earning the Montessori Teacher Certificate
- Two reference letters: one from a contact who knows you professionally and the other from a personal contact
- Final college transcript from the school in which you earned your Bachelor's degree
 - American Montessori Society (AMS) issues Montessori credentials to successful graduates of AMS-affiliated teacher education programs who hold a BA or BS degree (or higher). An associate credential for Infant & Toddler and Early Childhood levels is awarded to those who have completed high school but do not hold a college degree.
 - If your degree is from another country, please visit the World Education Services' website at www.wes.org to begin the transcript evaluation process.
 - Transcripts must be submitted prior to completing the Montessori Teacher Training program in order to be awarded certification from the American Montessori Society.
