

The IPIC Committee is proud to present

An Afternoon with Dr. Eddie Glaude, Jr.

Dr. Eddie Glaude will lead a discussion on the convergence of poverty, social justice, and higher education. This presentation will offer a greater understanding of the realities that underrepresented minority and/or immigrant students often face and how socioeconomic factors impact academic success, particularly retention and degree completion.

Eddie Glaude is the Chair of the Department for African American Studies and the William S. Tod Professor of Religion and African American Studies at Princeton University. He is widely regarded as one of the most important black intellectuals in the United States today.

Tuesday, January 10, 2017

Discussion from 1:00pm-3:00pm in the Conference Center Auditorium.

Reception following in the Atrium from 3:00pm-5:00pm

Please RSVP by Tuesday, January 3, 2017

Sign-up for this event via the following link:

<https://www.123signup.com/register?id=nbbvh>

Questions? Please email Jill Marcus at marcusj@mccc.edu or call at X3551