

Prepare to laugh

NINE comedians will be showcased in the "Parental Advisory Comedy Show 2009" at Mercer County Community College's Kelsey Theatre Jan. 24.

This stand-up comedy extravaganza features popular comedians from New York City, New Jersey and Pennsylvania, and will be hosted for the fourth year by Kyrus (www.kyrusonline.com).

The brainchild of Kyrus and MCCC Theatre Program classmate Josiah DeAndrea, the "Parental Advisory Comedy Show" has grown each year since 2006. According to Kyrus, this year's show will feature a variety of creative, raucous acts by some of the region's most promising comedic talents. This show is intended for mature audiences only.

Parental Advisory Comedy Show 2009 will be held at Mercer County Community College's Kelsey Theatre,

1200 Old Trenton Road, West Windsor, Jan. 24, 8 p.m. Tickets cost $15, $10 seniors/students. During the event, donations will be collected for the Kisses For Kyle Foundation (www.kissesforkyle.org); (609) 570-3333; www.kelseytheatre.net

