

WEST WINDSOR
MCCC to host talk on suicide prevention

Valerie Brooks-Klein, a counselor in Mercer County Community College's Student Success Center, will kick off a week-long series titled "It Gets Better" tomorrow, noon to 1:15 p.m. In "Resilience and Hope: Depression and Suicide Prevention Strategies," Brooks-Klein will discuss ways for students to deal with such issues as bullying and will present resources available on campus and online. It takes place in the Student Center, Room 151, on Mercer's West Windsor Campus, 1200 Old Trenton Road. It is open to the public. Call (609) 570-3354.
