

Jeans for Troops Day

May 24, 2012

All of us know someone who is or was in the military. Coming home from war and reemerging into civilian life is difficult. The G.I. Go Fund is an agency that helps vets find jobs, go to college, get health care and find housing. It's a 501 © (3) non-profit organization that assists vets with their return from Iraq and Afghanistan.

May 24, 2012 has officially been designated as "Jeans for Troops" Day by the State of New Jersey in honor and memory of Lt. Seth Dvorin from East Brunswick who died February 3, 2004, serving during Operation Iraqi Freedom.

For those who would like to do our 2 most favorite things-wear jeans to work and help others- this is an opportunity to do both. Please fill out the form below and send a check made out to G.I. Go Fund for $5 and send the check to Elaine Weinberg.

Tear Off and Send Through Interoffice Mail

Name _____

Enclosed is a check for $5 made out to gigofund.

Send check to Elaine Weinberg, Center for Training and Development,
MC 142.

Your cancelled check is your receipt.