

MCCC honors supporters

WEST WINDSOR — Three longtime supporters of Mercer County Community College will be honored at the Scholarship Dinner Dance tomorrow at the Hyatt Regency. Receiving MCCC's Spirit of Education awards will be Farid Veisz Fraytak Architects, P.C., and Janssen, Division of Ortho McNeil Janssen Pharmaceuticals Inc. The Spirit of Service award will go to Richard Kisco, owner of LeFleur, The Princeton Flower Shop.

The architectural firm Farid Veisz Fraytak, P.C., has been a loyal supporter of MCCC for more than 40 years. The firm designed the college's striking Conference Center and the addition to the Physical Education building. Over the years, many MCCC architecture students have gained experience at the firm. Former company president Jamil Farid has served on the MCCC Foundation Board for the past 18 years and is a major fundraiser for the college. David Fraytak will accept the award for the firm.

Janssen, Division of Ortho McNeil Janssen Pharmaceuticals Inc., a part of the Johnson & Johnson Family of Companies, has been a long-term partner with MCCC. Through a special grant in support of programs in the health professions and science, the company renovated and retrofitted science labs at the James Kerney Campus.

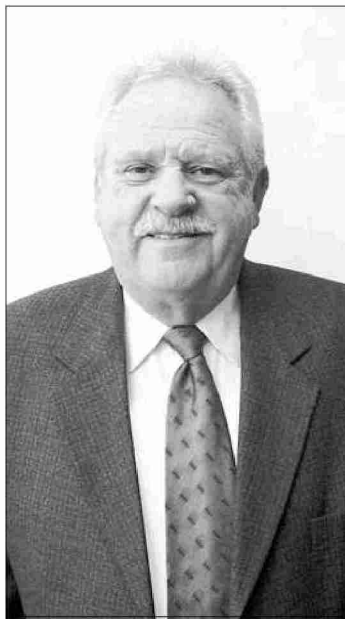

Kisco, owner of Le Fleur, The Princeton Flower Shop, is a 1969 graduate of MCCC and a community ambassador for the college. Along with a group of other committed community volunteers, Kisco was a charter member of the Scholarship Dinner Dance Committee, which began in 1990. Kisco credits Mercer with enabling him to get a good start on his education, which he continued at Waynesburg and Ohio State universities.
