Instructional Methods

Classroom Instruction: The teaching method will be a combination of lectures and discussions, supplemented by available media. A pertinent textbook will be utilized and relevant handouts will be used as supplemental materials.

Online Instruction: Teaching methods employed shall include written power-point lectures, Chapter reading assignments, discussion forums, written assignments, videos and email contact between student and instructor. Additional media and reading assignments outside the textbook may be assigned.

This course will be offered fully in the classroom or as a hybrid or fully online.

Method of Evaluation and Grading:

Students should be given a variety of opportunities for course participation. This should include oral discussions and or presentations, examinations, and critical thinking exercises. The student will be given at least three (3) examinations during the course of the term with the dates and format to be decided by the instructor. The percentage of examinations, critical thinking exercises, and class participation in the computation of each student’s grade will be determined by the instructor. Students may be required to complete written assignments and/or a term project.

Online: This course uses discussion forums, written assignments, quizzes and tests. The syllabus and important due dates documents explain the percent weighted for each activity. Specific grading will be explained in other documents provided by the course instructor at the beginning of each semester.

Grading Scale

A = 93 – 100 %
A- = 90 – 92 %
