Evaluation of Student Learning:

Explanation of Assignments and Grading System:
The student will read from the main text(s) each week. The first reading will relate specific events or experiences of a historical person. The second reading will put these experiences into a context of what is going on around the person. Weekly study questions will be based on both sets of readings. Four creative essays will be required throughout the semester which ask students to place themselves back into history and to speak as the person they are representing. A mid-term exam will cover the first seven weeks of study.

Percentages:
Creative essays 30%
Study Questions including class discussions 40%
Mid-Term Exercise 30%

Academic Integrity Statement:
MCCC is committed to original student work. All written material taken from other authors will require the use of quotation marks if directly quoted, or the use of references if paraphrased.
