

The Holocaust

Study Abroad Trip To Poland

Details: 9 days, May 13 - 21, 2017

Includes: Round trip Airfare, airport transfer from Mercer, parking, lodging, some meals, guided tours, excursions, admissions and two faculty leaders. Not Included: most meals, gratuities, and trip and health insurance.

We depart New York and arrive in Warsaw, Poland (3 nights) where students will visit not only the city's cultural centers but also encounter the historic places of the Warsaw Ghetto—including the Umschlagplatz, Jewish Cemetery, and Nozyk synagogue. From Warsaw, traveling by train, the tour moves to Krakow (2 nights) where we will explore the Jewish Quarter (Kazimierz) and its synagogues, the Jewish ghetto, Oskar Schindler's factory, and Plaszow forced labor camp. The trip culminates in Oswiecim (2 nights), the town nearest to Auschwitz. In addition to learning about life in Oswiecim, students will visit Auschwitz-Birkenau Concentration Camp as well as its sub-camps, including Monowitz.

Non-refundable deposit of $300 paid before October 31 reserves a spot on the trip. The non-refundable deposit increases to $350 from November 1-15 and to $500 from November 16-December 15.

Complete balance must be paid by January 24. Those interested in signing up after December 15 (if space is available), must pay full amount when signing up.

This trip is limited to 18 travelers.

Trip cost: $2,500

Faculty Leaders:

Dr. Craig Coenen (HIS215)
LA123 609-570-3533
coenenc@mccc.edu

Dr. Jack Tabor (ENG239)
LA133 609-570-3838
taborj@mccc.edu

Associated courses:

HIS215 - Holocaust and Other Genocides;
ENG239 - Literature of War and Conflict

Partial scholarships may be available for credit students thanks to the MCCC Foundation.
Contact Faculty Leaders for more information.

Information sessions:

Th	10/6	Noon	WWC	LB200
Th	10/27	Noon	WWC	LB200
Tu	11/15	Noon	WWC	LB200

This trip is open to interested members of the community.

To get application forms: www.mccc.edu/studyabroad
Email: studyabroad@mccc.edu Visit: LA119, Tu, Th 1:30-4 p.m.