

Immigrants in New Jersey: Facts

- There are more South Asians in New Jersey than there are anywhere else in the world except South Asia.
- Hudson County, New Jersey, is the second most diverse county in the nation, surpassed only by Queens County, New York.
- More than one-half of the Cuban population in New Jersey lives in Hudson county.
- The first Pakistani American mayor in the United States is in Basking Ridge, New Jersey.
- There are 68 languages spoken in the Clifton, NJ, Public School District.

Source: Beyond Diversity Resource Center