

Host Agency: Mercer County Police Academy

Death Scene Management First Responding Patrol Officers and EMS Personnel

Scene management is set in motion with the first responding patrol officer and emergency medical service personnel. The lack of adequate training, understanding and coordination of managing a scene amongst first responders can hinder an investigation.

Course Objective: This one (1) day course is designed to give personnel a clear understanding on properly coordinating and establishing crime scene restrictions. Provides insight on recognizing physical evidence, minimizing destruction of evidence, handling witnesses, and properly documenting the scene. These are crucial steps in the early stages of an investigation. YOU ONLY GET ONE CHANCE!

Primary Topic Covered:

- The Response to the Scene and Scene Safety
- Scene Assessment and Containment
- Recognizing Physical Evidence
- How to Minimize Contamination and Destruction of Evidence
- Recognition of Suspicious Deaths
- Search of the Scene
- Fourth Amendment Issues
- On Scene Interviews of Witnesses and Suspects
- Interaction amongst Police and EMS at the Scene
- Dealing with Investigators
- Documenting the Initial Scene and Events
