FBI: Crisis Negotiations

This five-day (5) course is designed to familiarize police officers with the current doctrine and theory of successful negotiation with individuals who are suicidal or who are in crisis, as well as criminal, mentally deranged and fanatic hostage takers. Instruction stresses the goal of approach in dealing with the hostage taker. Through the use of practical problems, all officers are exposed to negotiation situations during the course. Attendees should be patrol officers or detectives who will act as negotiators during actual crisis situations. Selections should be based on the department's ability to identify personnel who are enthusiastic and highly motivated to become crisis negotiators. Class size is limited to 24. This is a regional school for Mercer and Burlington Counties. The class size is limited to 24 attendees. The Slots will be allocated as follows: Mercer County (12), Burlington County (12).
