

Liberal Arts (A.A.)

Women's and Gender Studies Concentration

Lead Advisor: Denise Ingram (LA122; (609) 570-3587); ingramd@mccc.edu

Effective Fall 2006, the new name for the Humanities and Social Science major is Liberal Arts. Current majors in Humanities and Social Science who matriculated before Fall 2006 can either continue in the Humanities and Social Science program as outlined in the 2003-2006 MCCC catalog OR can change to the new Liberal Arts curriculum.

Liberal Arts majors can, if they wish, select one of the following concentrations:

Humanities
Social Science

American Studies
International Studies

Political and Legal Studies
Women's and Gender Studies

Women's and Gender Studies Concentration Denise Ingram, Lead Advisor (LA 122) Program Code 13430
Communication: 9 credits
ENG 101 ("C" grade or higher required)
ENG 102 ("C" grade or higher required)
CMN 111 or CMN 112
Humanities: 15 credits
HIS 101 or 102 or 112 or 113
HIS 221, History of American Women or HIS 231, Women in Antiquity or HIS 232, Women in Modern Europe
ENG 221, Women in Literature or ENG 232, Post-Colonial Women Writers
Literature elective
Humanities elective
Social Science: 12 credits
PSY 101, Introductory Psychology
PSY 221, The Psychology of Women
SOC 101, Introduction to Sociology
Social Science elective
Diversity and Global Perspective: 3 credits
WGS 221, Seminar in Women's and Gender Studies
Foreign Language: 6 credits
Foreign Language: ARB, FRE, GER, HUN, ITA, JPN, LAT, PLS, SPA. Two courses in the same Language and in progressive sequence.	_____
Mathematics: 6-8 credits
TWO Mathematics. MAT 108, 120, and 138 recommended.	_____
Natural Science and Technology: 6 credits
Natural Science with Lab
Natural Science or Technology
College-wide requirements: 5-6 credits
General Education elective (SOC 132, Introduction to Women's and Gender Studies recommended)
HPE 110 or HPE 111	_____
Total	62-65