Consequences for Violations of Academic Integrity:

Before you begin any graded assignment, be sure to consult the College’s policies on Academic Integrity, which you can find on the MCCC website or in the Student Handbook. In addition to proscriptions for cheating on tests, strict adherence to rules with respect to plagiarism, including but not limited to prohibitions on Internet “cut and paste” jobs, are of utmost importance. If you are unsure as to how to properly cite sources, visit the College Library or other knowledgeable source for guidance. This is a topic of zero tolerance, so be sure to give proper attribution to material that you use.

For any single violation of any of the College’s policies on Academic Integrity in this course, the student will receive a zero for the assignment AND the final course grade will be lowered by one full letter grade (for example, an otherwise B would become a C). For a second violation, the student will fail the course. In all cases, the Chair of the Academic Integrity Committee will be notified of the violation and the penalty imposed. When two (or more) violations of academic integrity are reported on a student, the Academic Integrity Committee (AIC) may impose disciplinary penalties beyond those imposed in this course. The student shall have the right to a hearing before the AIC or a designated AIC subcommittee.
