Required Textbook:

Myers, David (2014). Exploring Psychology In Modules, 9th Edition. Worth Publishers

Welcome to Psychology 101!

This class will provide you with the basic principles of psychology. For many of you, this may be the only course you take in psychology in order to satisfy your general education requirements or as a general elective. However, some of you will decide to pursue further coursework in psychology by electing psychology as a major.

In this class you will learn what psychology really is, which includes a wide-range of issues relating to all areas of our lives. This course will introduce you to each of the sub-areas of psychology that you can pursue later on in more depth if you wish, such as developmental, cognitive, social, personality, and abnormal psychology. This will allow you the opportunity to decide what specific topics within psychology most excite you.

Whatever your motivation was for signing up for this course, I sincerely hope this will be a wonderful experience for you, as you are introduced to the fascinating, controversial, and always intriguing, field of psychology

Academic Integrity

The work a student produces must be their own and should result solely from their own efforts. Plagiarism or cheating on any assignment is regarded as an extremely serious academic offense. Students who violate this policy will receive an "F" for the course. Please refer to the Mercer County Community College Academic Integrity Handbook, or request one from the professor.

Accessibility Statement

Mercer County Community College is committed to ensuring the full participation of all students in its programs. If you have a documented differing ability or think that you may have a differing ability that is protected under the ADA and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act, please contact Arlene Stinson in LB 216 stinsona@mccc.edu for information regarding support services.

- If you do not have a documented differing ability, remember that other support services are available to all students on campus including the Learning Center located in LB 214. For more information regarding accommodations, you may visit the Office of Academic Support Services in FA129 or contact them at 609.570.3422 or urbanb@mccc.edu.

It will be the student's responsibility to arrange an accommodation. If you are a student with a disability or special need, please advise me within the first 2 weeks of the course so appropriate accommodations can be made.

Attendance and Conduct

As college students you choose to be here. You have elected to register for this course and YOU will determine your overall experience in this class. Although I do not expect students to attend every class due to demands of life, attendance is very important and required. If you miss class, it is YOUR RESPONSIBILITY to get the information you have missed. Do not expect or request the notes to be supplied by me if you did not attend lecture. Attendance and lecture notes are crucial to success in this class.

Without question, students who attend class perform better than those who do not...make sure you get to class. If you are often absent, it should lead you to ask the question, “Why did I register for this course?” You will not hurt my feelings if this class is not for you, but please don’t just disappear- drop the class as soon as you realize you don’t want to be here. If you choose to not return without officially dropping the course, you will receive an “F” on your transcript.

Texting Policy:

As a student in this class you are expected to maintain college-level etiquette, which includes respectful conduct inside and outside the classroom. Texting or use of phone during this class will not be tolerated by any student, there are NO exceptions. Should any student violate this policy the following penalties will be enforced:

1. The first time you are seen texting in class 20 points will be taken from your final grade.
2. If you are seen texting a second time 50 points will be taken from your final grade.
3. If you are seen texting a third time you will be dropped from the course. If the drop period has passed, you will receive an F for the class.

Attendance Bonus

Students who attend every class will receive a 4 point bonus. If you miss only one class, you will receive a 2 point bonus. Lateness is not acceptable from college students; therefore two lates will be equal to one absence. If you arrive to class after I have taken role, it is YOUR responsibility to advise me that you arrived late otherwise you will be marked as absent. All absences without a doctor’s note will be considered unexcused. It is at my discretion to add additional points for active participation.

Online Quizzes via LAUNCH PAD (70 points)

Each student will be required to register and use LAUNCH PAD which accompanies the course text book. LAUNCH PAD is an all-digital learning platform for students in higher education. This program is designed for students to connect with the course material through engaging, interactive content for more effective learning. You will be assigned various activities throughout the semester and each assignment has a due date. Each Topic must be submitted no later than 11:55pm on the due date, otherwise no credit will be assigned. Each topic is worth 7 possible points. Once the deadline has passed, you will not be able to earn points for that assignment. You are responsible for logging into our online class section and completing the provided assignments. Please use the following link to register for LAUNCH PAD: <http://www.macmillanhighered.com/launchpad/exploring9einmodulesdsm5/557102>

Topic 10	Modules 15-16	Sensation and Perception	7	12/8

Exams (210 points)

Your final grade will be based, in part, on THREE 50 question multiple-choice/true-false exams, each question worth 1.4 points which will total 210 possible points. All exams will be administered in class on designated testing days provided in the course schedule (See below). It is the student’s responsibility to take the exam on time. Make-up exams are not an option in this course.

- Should you miss an exam, you will have the option of taking EXAM 4, a cumulative final exam, which will replace your lowest exam grade. Exam 4 will be available during the final exam period.

Textbook Quizzes (20 points)

Throughout the semester there will be weekly in-class quizzes which test your knowledge of the assigned chapter readings. These quizzes will be at the start of class and consist of 1 question related the course material that should be covered in your weekly reading. There will be twenty-five (25) quizzes available this semester, five can be used as extra credit. Please be sure to arrive on time, if not early, to class so you can complete these quizzes. If you are late to class and miss the quiz, you cannot make it up.

Extra Credit Opportunities:

Journal Review (10 points)

This assignment requires the review of ONE scholarly journal article, there are two pre-selected articles below for your use or you may select your own. A comprehensive list of online databases is available for Mercer students. Please become familiar with the Social Science databases, PsycArticles, JSTOR, and Proquest are very useful for psychology students. These databases can be found at http://www.mccc.edu/student_library_online.shtml.

Pre-selected articles to choose from (Select One):

- Strayer, D and Drews, F. (2007). Cell-Phone–Induced Driver Distraction. Current Directions in Psychological Science. 16(3) 181-185.
- Ashcraft, M. (2002) Math Anxiety: Personal, Educational, and Cognitive Consequences. Current Directions in Psychological Science. 11(5) 181-185.

In your review, no direct quotes are permitted. Please paraphrase it – put it into your own words. You will lose 1 point for every direct quote in your review. Your review cannot exceed ONE page in length. At the end of the review make sure to include the full APA citation for the article.

The extra credit article review is worth 10 points
2 points	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ What were the researchers interested in? ▪ What research question(s) were they trying to answer?
2 points	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Who participated in their research? Describe the characteristics of the participants. Where did they get their participants from?
2 points	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ How was the research conducted (describe what the researchers did)? ▪ Does the research fit one of the basic research methods we discussed in chapter 1 - naturalistic observation, survey/questionnaire, case study of single individual, experiment, correlational research? Which? ▪ If it was an experiment, what variables were manipulated? What variables were measured, recorded or observed?
2 points	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ What did the researchers find? What were the results? ▪ What conclusions do the researchers make?
2 point	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Correct APA citation of the article

Flash cards

To encourage good study habits, I will give 4 extra credit points per exam to students who make flash cards of the chapter material. It may not sound like much, but that adds up to 12 extra credits points which will be added to your overall final points. Take advantage of this opportunity!

Course Grading

Your final grade for this class will be calculated on a point system. Your grade will be based on the total number of points accumulated of the entire semester. The required assignments are worth a total of 300 possible points for the course. Use the chart below to keep track of your cumulative points for all assignments for the semester.

Helpful Tips for Success

Student success is not given at the end of the semester as a letter grade, begins on the first day of the semester and earned through persistence. Will you be successful in this class? Each semester many students register for this class and fail...why? Mostly because they did not come to class understanding what it takes to succeed. High school is over...you will not pass this class just by showing up, it will take effort. YOU must care about your success in this class from the very beginning.

How can I succeed in this class?

1. Read the syllabus!!
2. Read the syllabus!!
3. Take responsibility for your performance. YOU will determine your success in this class, not me.
4. Come to class with a good attitude...(or stay home)
5. Come to class on time, prepared and ready to participate.
6. Ask questions and get involved.
7. Complete all assignments on time
8. Take advantage of the extra credit opportunities.
9. Attend office hours if you are having trouble
10. Be proactive...don't wait until the end of semester to get involved!

Advice from my former PSY 101 Students

Read the syllabus!

Avoid procrastination...Don't save everything for the last minute!

Pay attention in class...it helps a lot!

Organize your calendar and keep track of everything that is due to succeed in this class!

Do the LAUNCH PAD assignments- it makes a difference!

Come to class

Learn to manage your time

Do ALL of the extra credit!

Take school seriously

The following are behaviors and attitudes not associated with successful college students. I encourage questions of all kinds, both inside and outside of the class, but the following are exceptions. None of your Professors enjoy questions such as these, don't be that student 😊

The Top Ten Questions You Shouldn't Ask Professor Jennings!	Top Ten Answers You will Receive if you do:
1. I wasn't here last class...Did I miss anything important?	No, we waited for to show and when you didn't we all left.
2. When are your office hours?	Read the Syllabus
3. Where is your office?	Read the Syllabus
4. What chapters are on the exam(s)?	Read the Syllabus
5. When is that paper due?	Read the Syllabus
6. Do you have a stapler I can borrow?	No.
7. Are the exam questions HARD...are you trying to trick us?	No.
8. I forgot to take the test...can I have a make-up?	No, take the optional final at the end of the semester.
9. Do I have to buy the book?	No, but you are setting yourself up for failure if you do not have all the course materials.
10. Do we really need to cite our sources?	No, you are special. Everyone else must cite, except for you. Of course you need to cite your sources!

I sincerely hope that you find this subject to be interesting and enjoy this psychology course. It is my goal for each of you to successfully learn in this class, as well as, think critically about issues related to Psychology. Please feel free to contact me at any time during the semester in class, during office hours, by phone or email with any questions.
