Course Overview:

The purpose of this course is to help you develop an understanding of normal human development. Through this course you will become familiar with the major theoretical perspectives of human development as well as the normal sequence of development. By the end of this course, you have an appreciation for the variety of influences (physical, cognitive, emotional, social, personality, and environmental) on human development – from conception through death.

Upon successful completion of this course, all students should be able to:

- Explain the major theories and issues of human development
- Understand basic human heredity and prenatal development
- Understand physical, cognitive, emotional, and social development from birth through death
- Understand the influence of cultural and society on human development
- Read and evaluate research, understand the scientific method, and apply it to the understanding of human behavior and development
- Observe and analyze human behavior and development
- Use APA format in the writing of papers and assignments

Academic Integrity

The work a student produces must be their own and should result solely from their own efforts. Plagiarism or cheating on any assignment is regarded as an extremely serious academic offense. Student's who violate this policy will receive an "F" for the course. Please refer to the Mercer County Community College Academic Integrity Handbook, or request one from the professor

Reasonable Accommodations for Students with Documented Disabilities

Mercer County Community College is committed to supporting all students in their academic and co-curricular endeavors. Each semester, a significant number of students document disabilities, which may require learning, sight, hearing, manual, speech, or mobility accommodations to ensure access to academic and co-curricular activities. The college provides services and reasonable accommodations to all students who need and have a legal entitlement to such accommodations.

For more information regarding accommodations, you may visit the Office of Academic Support Services in FA129 or contact them at 609.570.3422 or urbanb@mccc.edu.

It will be the student's responsibility to arrange an accommodation. If you are a student with a disability or special need, please advise the professor within the first 2 weeks of the course so appropriate accommodations can be made.

Attendance and Conduct

As college students you choose to be here. You have elected to register for this course and YOU will determine your overall experience in this class. Although I do not expect students to attend every class due to demands of life, attendance is very important and required. If you miss class, it is YOUR RESPONSIBILITY to get the information you have missed. Do not expect or request the notes to be supplied by me if you did not attend lecture. Attendance and lecture notes are crucial to success in this class.

Without question, students who attend class perform better than those who do not...make sure you get to class. If you are often absent, it should lead you to ask the question, "Why did I register for this course?"

You will not hurt my feelings if this class is not for you, but please don't just disappear- drop the class as soon as you realize you don't want to be here. If you choose to not return without officially dropping the course, you will receive an "F" on your transcript.

I will NOT drop you from the course- YOU must withdraw!

Attendance Bonus

Students who attend every class will receive a 4 point bonus. If you miss only one class, you will receive a 2 point bonus. Lateness is not acceptable from college students; therefore two lates will be equal to one absence. If you arrive to class after I have taken role, it is YOUR responsibility to advise me that you arrived late otherwise you will be marked as absent. All absences without a doctor's note will be considered unexcused. It is at my discretion to add additional points for active participation.

Exams

There will be four 75 point non-cumulative multiple choice exams. The four exams will be based on material covered in lecture and in the text. The lowest exams grade will be dropped and only the three highest exam scores will count towards the final grade. All exams will be administered in class on designated testing days provided in the course schedule (See below). It is the student's responsibility to take the exam on time. Make-up exams are not an option in this course.

NO MAKE-UP EXAMS or EXAM EXTENSIONS WILL BE GIVEN

You are responsible to take each of the exams during the assigned time period in the ACADEMIC TESTING CENTER (second floor of the Library building, LB 209). You will need your validated MCCC identification card in order to take the exam.

Testing center hours of operation:

(You must arrive at the testing center at least 20 minutes prior to closing and all papers must be handed in 10 minutes before closing time.)

- Monday - Thursday 9 a.m. – 7:30 p.m.
- Friday 9 a.m. – 3:00 p.m.
- Saturday 9 a.m. – 2:30 p.m.

BE SURE TO TAKE THE TESTS DURING THE DESIGNATED TIMES (see the course schedule).

Be proactive... If you are unhappy with your grades, please come speak with me during the semester. Do not wait until the exam 4 to discuss problems with your grades.

Writing Assignments:

One of the course objectives is the ability to apply psychological concepts to you own life. In order to encourage you to see the connections, you will be required to answer three (3) out of four reflection questions. Each answer must incorporate your personal opinion/experience and its relation to class material. In addition, each answer will allow you to practice using APA format.

Instruction for writing assignments:

- Your answers must combine personal experience/opinion and class material.
- In every answer you MUST cite the textbook and at least one additional scholarly source (e.g., psychology websites, journal articles). You must cite these sources in the body of the paper (in-text citation) and in a corresponding reference page.
- The reference page must be its own separate page.
- All sources must be cited using APA format (MLA format is not permitted).
- Each answer must be typed and 1-2 pages (double-spaced, 12-point font, 1-inch margins).

Each student must answer three (3) of the following four reflection questions.

Question 1 – based on Chapter 2: DUE Tuesday 2/9

- The textbook discusses the influence of age on pregnancy and birth outcomes. Many older women need the assistance of fertility clinics to get pregnant. At what age would you say clinics should stop providing fertility treatments to women? Why? Is there a double standard that women should stop having children in their mid-thirties, but no such limit exists for men becoming fathers? If yes, why do you think this is so?

Question 2 – based on Chapter 4: DUE Thursday 2/18

- A bartender has the right to refuse to serve an individual who has had too much alcohol to drink. Should overweight people be refused unhealthy fast food? Why or why not?

Question 3 – based on Chapter 9: DUE Thursday 3/25

- Should children in the United States be required to learn more than one language? Why or why not? Support your answer.

Question 4 – based on Chapter 12: DUE Tuesday May 4th

- If you had the opportunity to change your gender for a month, would you do it? Why or why not? What would be some advantages of being the other gender? What would be some of the disadvantages of being the other gender?

REFLECTION QUESTION ANSWERS: EACH WORTH A MAXIMUM OF 20 POINTS
Quality of Answer
10 points	Answer nicely addressed question asked incorporated personal opinion and class material (class material supports/justifies personal opinion); Class material discussed accurately
8 points	Answer adequately addressed question asked incorporated personal opinion and class material (class material supports/justifies personal opinion); Flaws in the discussion of class material
6 points	Attempted to answer the question asked but the personal opinion was not adequately explained by class material; Class material discussed accurately
4 points	Attempted to answer the question asked but the personal opinion was not adequately explained by class material; Flaws in the discussion of class material
2 points	Answer addressed the question asked but the personal opinion discussed was not supported/justified by class material
0 points	Answer did not address the question asked

In-Text Citations – References In the Body of the Paper
3 points	Paraphrased and correctly cited both sources(in APA format)
2 points	Paraphrased both sources but incorrectly cited source(s)
1 point	Directly quoted at least one of the sources but correctly cited both sources (APA format)
0 points	Directly quoted and incorrectly cited at least one of the sources
APA Format – Reference Page
3 points	Correct APA citation of both sources (the textbook and another scholarly source)
2 points	Correct APA citation of one but not both sources
1 point	Incorrect APA citations of both sources
0 points	No reference page
Sources Cited in the Body of the Paper
2 points	Cited both the textbook and another scholarly source
1 point	Cited only the textbook; Or cited the textbook and an non-scholarly source
0 points	Did not cite any sources
Directions Followed
2 points	Answer is typed (double-spaced, 12-point font, 1-inch margins) and 1-2 pages in length
1 point	Answer is typed (double-spaced, 12-point font, 1-inch margins) but less than 1 page in length
0 points	Answer not typed

DEATH and DYING ACTIVITY (15 Points)

None of us will get out of this life alive. We will all die, some sooner than later. When you die, how do you want people to remember you? In order to get you thinking about confronting death, you must write two obituaries: one as though you died today, at your present age; the other worded as though you lived through adulthood and died at an old age. Both obituaries must be typed (double-spaced, 12-point font, 1-inch margins). Each obituary should be no longer than half a page. Both obituaries should include information about survivors, place of service or burial, and accomplishments. For ideas, look at the obituaries in the New York Times: <http://www.legacy.com/NYTimes/DeathNotices.asp> Both obituaries are DUE May 4th

- The first obituary should be realistic. Writing this obituary is designed to make you think about the impact you have had on those that know and care about you. You must think about how you will be missed if you died today.

- The second obituary should be idealistic. Writing this obituary is designed to make you anticipate many years of life and how you can live your life to the fullest. You must carefully select the accomplishments you want to include.

DEATH and DYING ACTIVITY – Worth a maximum of 15 points
15 points	Completed both obituaries; Demonstrated careful reflection about how you will be missed and how you want to be remembered; Included basic obituary information; Followed the directions (typed, each less than half a page)
12 points	Completed both obituaries; Demonstrated careful reflection about how you will be missed and how you want to be remembered ; Had one of the following problems: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Didn't include some of the basic obituary information (such as survivors, place of service or burial, accomplishments, etc...) • One or more of the obituaries was too long (over half a page)
10 points	Completed only one of the two obituaries; Demonstrated careful reflection about how you will be missed and how you want to be remembered; Included basic obituary information; Followed the directions (typed, less than half a page)
5 points	Completed both obituaries; Had more than one of the following problems: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Careful reflection about how you will be missed and how you want to be remembered not evident • Didn't include some of the basic obituary information (such as survivors, place of service or burial, accomplishments, etc...) • One or more of the obituaries was too long (over half a page)
1 point	Completed only one of the two obituaries; Had one or more of the following problems: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Careful reflection about how you will be missed and how you want to be remembered not evident • Didn't include some of the basic obituary information (such as survivors, place of service or burial, accomplishments, etc...) • The obituary was too long (over half a page)
0 points	Obituaries not typed

Late Assignments

All assignments and exams must be completed by the due date listed below in the course schedule. If you miss a due date please do not attempt to submit the assignment, I will not accept late papers. However, you may submit ONE late assignment during the course. The ONE late assignment MUST be submitted with a "late pass" (attached below). This late pass will allow a ONE day extension...not one class...one day only. So for example, if the assignment is due on October 1st, you can submit the assignment on October 2nd without penalty. Once the one day extension has passed the assignment will not be accepted. Therefore, if you want to earn extra credit in this course YOU MUST PLAN AHEAD

Extra Credit Opportunities

Students will have the option of submitting an additional one page, type-written journal summary paper (Instructions included at the end of the syllabus). This paper can be submitted at any time during the semester however, it MUST be submitted by May 4th. This paper will be worth 10 extra credit points.

To encourage good study habits, I will give 4 extra credit points per exam to students who make flash cards of the chapter material. It may not sound like much, but that adds up to 12 extra credits points which will be added to your overall final points. Take advantage of this opportunity!

Course Grading

Your final grade for this class will be calculated on a point system. Your grade will be based on exam totals for a total of 300 possible points for the course.

Use the space below to keep track of your cumulative points from the exams, paper, writing assignments and extra credit.

Keep track of your points!

Extra Credit Paper

Submission deadline no later than May 6th

INSTRUCTIONS FOR PAPER:

This is an extra credit paper worth 10 points toward your total final grade. Your paper should be a summary of a selected article that you choose from a reputable source related to the topic of behavior. Acceptable sources would include articles of at least 4 pages, but no longer than 12 pages from a scholarly, peer-reviewed journal. The article must be published from 2000 to the present and discuss a topic related to developmental psychology

Your paper must be typed, double-spaced and one page only. The font size should be either 10 or 12 point. You should include your name and section number on the back of the paper only. Please do not submit your paper in a plastic binder or folder.

The title of your article should not be included at the top of the paper or in the body of the paper. The title of the article should only appear in the reference at the bottom of your paper. The first sentence of your paper should include the author of the article you are summarizing and the date of the publication. Examples of how you may start include: As Aronson (2002) discovered that...or Aronson (2002) suggests in his article...or Aronson (2002) states that...found that...etc.

The bottom of your paper should include the reference: author (last name, first initial). If there is more than one author, all the authors must be named in the reference, but not the body of the paper.) The body of the paper can say, Aronson et al. (2002)...). An example of the APA (American Psychological Association) method that your paper should follow to cite your reference, looks like this:

Murray, B. (2000). Teaching students how to learn. Monitor on Psychology, Vol. 31 (8), pp. 64-68.

The reference should be single spaced and the second line should be indented.

The summary that you write should not be an opinion paper or personal feelings paper. You need to read an article and then summarize the article in your own words. Try not to use direct quotes. If you do, be sure to follow the APA format for direct quotes, do not copy directly from the article. You will be limited to ONE direct quote ONLY should you elect to do so. Your job will be to rewrite what you read...in other words, paraphrase.

Your paper will be graded on the selection of your article, the content, the organization of your paper, and the clarity and coherence of your writing. Spelling, grammar, punctuation, style, all count in the evaluation.

Grading Criteria:

An “A” level paper will receive 7-10 points:

The student uses a scholarly, peer-reviewed article to summarize that is about 4-12 pages in length on a topic clearly related to psychology. The student makes a copy of the article and reads it several times, making comments in the margin and highlighting important sections of the article. The student has full understanding of the article and captures the essence of the article in a clear and concise one page summary. The student manages to address what the article is about, and if it is about an experiment, the student explains the author’s hypothesis and if it was supported. If the student is summarizing an experimental research article, the student relies on the Introduction, Methods, Results and Discussion sections to write the summary. It is not necessary for the student to understand the statistics used in the Results section, but the student must report whether the findings support the hypothesis and what the implications are for the research.

The paper has less than two spelling errors and is grammatically correct, captures the essence of the article and is clearly written. The APA format is followed and the reference is properly cited.

A “B” level paper will receive 4-6 points:

The student selects a topic clearly related to psychology but uses a more readable, less scholarly article to summarize such as Psychology Today, Time Magazine or Newsweek. The student follows the same procedure as above, and writes a clear and concise summary that captures the essence of the article. The paper is grammatically correct, and has more than 4 spelling errors. The student follows APA format and the reference is appropriately cited.

A “C” level paper will receive 1-3 points:

The student submits a paper that meets the requirements of the assignment. The student has done a satisfactory job with the assignment, but the paper is not as clearly written as an “A” or “B” level paper and/or may have cited the reference improperly.

No points will be awarded for a paper that falls below a C level of work.

ONE MORE THING!
What to do if class is cancelled

In the event that class is cancelled you will be required to watch a video on a topic related to a current psychological concept. These are streaming videos can be accessed through Annenberg CPB Videos. This website is an archive of streaming videos that are “on demand” so students can watch from any computer with an internet connection.

This is a free service that requires registration before accessing the video archives. Follow the link below to register. If class is cancelled I will send a class-wide email through the MCCC email system to notify students of the cancellation. In this email I will provide the link and/or title of the required video. A class discussion will occur in the following class and this information will appear on the next exam.
