Key Term Quiz

gaming PC

graphics workstation

Windows Media Center

Audio/video editing workstation

thin client

virtualization workstation

graphics workstation

TV tuner

home server PC.

1. A(n) ___________ is a type of computer that connects to a server on a network. It offloads much of the processing to the server. In many situation this computer doesn’t even have a hard drive.

2. A(n) __________________ is a powerful computer that is used with applications like Adobe Photoshop, Adobe Premiere, and Autodesk Sketchbook Pro.

3. A(n) __________________ is a computer that can run a second “guest” operating system on top of another operating system, sharing the hardware resources of one computer.

4. A computer that has RAID functionality along with the ability to stream media to other workstations on the network is most likely a ________________.

5. By installing a(n) ____________, you will have the ability to watch over-the-air television on your computer.