

The Mercer County Holocaust, Genocide & Human Rights Education Center presents:

The Personal Impact of Systemic Antisemitism and How Education Can Combat It

March 14, 2024 at 7 p.m. ET via Zoom

Jesse Tannetta is a former high school teacher who is now the Program Manager for Echoes & Reflections. He holds a master's degree in Holocaust and Genocide Studies and is a current Ph.D. student beginning his dissertation on female concentration camp guard Hermine Braunsteiner Ryan.

Echoes & Reflections is dedicated to reshaping the way that teachers and students understand, process, and navigate the world through the events of the Holocaust. We partner with educators to help them introduce students to the complex themes of the Holocaust and to understand its lasting effect on the world.
