

ATTENTION

Nursing and Pre-Nursing Students

St. Lawrence Rehabilitation Center and Morris Hall skilled nursing center are seeking motivated Nursing and Pre-Nursing students who would like to become Certified Nurse Aides (CNA), earn extra money and gain real hands on nursing experience while pursuing their Nursing Degree.

In conjunction with Mercer County Community College, St. Lawrence Rehabilitation Center and Morris Hall will sponsor selected students and pay their CNA tuition at MCCC.

Once you become a CNA you will begin working in either St. Lawrence or Morris Hall. Both facilities offer a challenging clinical environment, flexible schedules to work with your nursing classes, paid time off and tuition reimbursement to help pay for your nursing or pre-nursing classes.

For further information, contact Martha Redondo, Project Manager, at the James Kerney Campus: (609) 570-3187 or redondom@mccc.edu.

Don't delay; the next CNA class is filling now!
