

Sue Minkel, RN, BSN, MA in Nursing Education

Tutoring for Success Program

Spring 2016

sueminkel@comcast.net

C: 215-962-4996

IN CLASS LIVE TUTORING

WHEN: is available until the end of the spring semester:
Every Monday from 12:30 PM to 4:30 PM (NOTE CHANGE OF TIME)
Every Tuesday from 1:00 PM to 5:00 PM

ARRIVAL TIME: Students can arrive and leave at any time.

WHERE: MS 215

GOALS:

1. To assist students of all levels in the nursing program to learn key strategies useful when reading NCLEX test questions
2. To provide effective study strategies to assist students to narrow down large volumes of reading materials, lectures, notes
3. To provide a supportive environment in which skills for success can be learned

HOW TO ARRANGE FOR IN CLASS LIVE TUTORING:

1. CONTACT tutor via email or text the day before you plan on attending tutoring.
2. Include in the email/text
 - a. your name, cell phone number, email
 - b. name of the course you are in,
 - c. problem you are having,
 - d. if you have failed a course – identify which course
3. At your first tutoring session complete an INFORMATION FORM. The form is available on the website, can be printed out and completed before attending.
4. At the end of the tutoring session a short summary form is completed indicating if needs were met
5. In Class Tutoring is not held if NO students are planning on attending.
6. If only one person is planning on attending then tutoring will be held with that person electronically via skype/facetime/phone call

INDIVIDUAL TUTORING

WHEN: available by appointment throughout the week provided via Skype, Facetime, or phone.

HOW TO ARRANGE:

1. Contact tutor via text or email with multiple time slots available throughout the week to choose from as options.
2. Student must have access to the following book through the Evolve WEBSITE on personal computer to go over test questions together:
Silvestri, L.A. (2014) Saunders Comprehensive Review for the NCLEX-RN Examination. (6th ed.) St. Louis, MI. Elsevier Saunders. (ISBN-13: 9781455727551).