Red forest

A red forest is a little pyre something that barely burns the fingers, a remaining ember from a branch, warmth that lasts in the house, once the blaze is over.
A red forest is a dim thing you kept under your kitchen apron spice that softly bursts on the tongue the flounce from a dress.
Tell me if you stayed too cold I will get a color, a lightning or a bird to put between your hands.
