

The Mercer County Holocaust/Genocide Resource Center

Student Writing Contest

To honor the memory of longtime Mercer County College Professor Saul Goldwasser, the Center and his family have initiated a writing contest for Mercer County Community College students with an award to the winners of a small gift certificate to the college bookstore.

The 100th anniversary of Raoul Wallenberg, as well as the humanitarian activities of other upstanders whom Professor Goldwasser exemplified, are the theme that the students may write on in prose, poetry or script (play) while exploring any of the following topics:

- An Individual Rescuer Who I Admire
- Why Become an Upstander
- Bullying Is Not a Game
- Diversity: Our Country's Secret of Success
- Raoul Wallenberg

A panel will judge the entries, and the winners will be announced throughout the college.

Entries are due by April 1, 2013 and should be no more than three typed pages submitted to:
