

Keynote Address:

What the Best College Teachers Do in the 21st Century

Dr. Ken Bain

~Call for Proposals~

Engaging Learners in the 21st Century Conference

Wednesday, August 26th, 2015

The Conference Center at Mercer County Community College

The Instructional and Professional Improvement Committee (IPIC) of Mercer County Community College is now accepting proposals for the EL21c Conference.

A conference dedicated to teaching and learning along three distinct tracks: Engaged/Problem-based learning, Online/Hybrid/Flipped, and STEM. Featured keynote by acclaimed educator, researcher, and author Dr. Ken Bain. Internationally recognized for his insights into teaching and learning and for a fifteen-year study of what the best educators do. His now classic book What the Best College Teachers Do (Harvard University Press, 2004) is one of the top selling books on higher education.

Please submit a proposal along one of the designated tracks. Submissions may include presentations, workshops, demonstrations, research papers, panels, and roundtable discussions. Accepted presenters will be notified by end of April. Registration fee $75; includes keynote, all sessions, breakfast & lunch.

Registration fee waived for lead presenters.

Proposals must be received by April 2nd, 2015

SUBMIT HERE: <http://goo.gl/forms/uHm0Q5Zcvx>

Registration will open in May 2015. Please visit the conference website for updates. <http://teach.mccc.edu/el21c>

Session Tracks

Online/Hybrid/Flipped

Topics and examples of outstanding learning initiatives related to online, hybrid, flipped, or web-enhanced models.

STEM

Initiatives, topics, programs, issues, or teaching and learning techniques in any of the STEM fields.

Problem-Based & Engaged Learning Track

Topics and examples of student-centered pedagogy where learning occurs through problem-solving and students are active agents throughout the learning process.

For inquiries and more information, contact:

Theresa Capra
caprat@mccc.edu
609-570-3854