A very special event!

The Instructional and Professional Improvement Committee (IPIC) is proud to present: Teaching Diverse Students: Women and Low-Income Students.

The IPIC cordially invites you to a presentation by Dr. Mary Gatta, senior scholar from Wider Opportunities for Women, a nonprofit organization that advances educational and economic opportunities for women and low-income individuals. Dr. Gatta will share current research about the needs of these individuals, and offer insight into how community college educators can better teach them. The salience of this topic is clear-- especially in light of the national Completion Agenda.

All are welcome; full and part-time faculty members are encouraged to attend!

When: Wednesday, January 16th, 1:00 PM-2:30 PM

Where: Conference Center Auditorium

Guest Speaker: Dr. Mary Gatta, Wider Opportunities for Women <http://www.wowonline.org/>
